Core Value: SERVE

Matthew 4:1-11

At that time Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert to be tempted by the devil.

He fasted for forty days and forty nights,
and afterwards he was hungry.

The tempter approached and said to him,

"If you are the Son of God, command that these stones become loaves of bread."

He said in reply,

"It is written:

*One does not live on bread alone,
but on every word that comes forth from the mouth of God."*

Then the devil took him to the holy city,
and made him stand on the parapet of the temple,
and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down.

For it is written:

He will command his angels concerning you and with their hands they will support you,

lest you dash your foot against a stone."
Jesus answered him,
"Again it is written,
You shall not put the Lord, your God, to the test."
Then the devil took him up to a very high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in their magnificence, and he said to him, "All these I shall give to you,
if you will prostrate yourself and worship me."
At this, Jesus said to him,
"Get away, Satan!
It is written:
The Lord, your God, shall you worship and him alone shall you serve."

Then the devil left him and, behold, angels came and ministered to him.

Dear St. John Families,

The Gospel reading for the first Sunday of Lent describes Jesus' long journey through the desert. He persevered for 40 days without food and water and was tempted several times by the devil. He had chosen to make sacrifices along the way by the will of the Father.

We are often tempted to stray away from the path of righteousness and instead wanting to take the short cut. We are reminded by Jesus's actions to not stay within his comfort zone and to place his trust in His Father and Himself. Lent is a time to reset the compass of life and closely examining our conscience in order to come back to Jesus. May the God keep us on His path, living by His truth, and strengthen in prayer.
